

CANZONA for Horn and String Quartet was written in memory of Luise Vosgerchian. Ms. Vosgerchian taught music at Harvard for thirty-one years beginning in 1959, the year that I became a student there. A charismatic performer, lecturer and mentor, she was an inspiration to hundreds of young musicians at Harvard, Tanglewood and in the Boston area.

The work received its first performance on February 8, 2002 at Vassar College by Gail Williams and The Chicago String Quartet.

--RW