

Intonations for solo horn was composed in 1989 and received its premiere at Greenwich House Music School in New York City on November 14, 1991 played by William Purvis. It consists of five untitled movements the third of which is the fastest and the fourth, the slowest.

--RW