

Trio for Oboe, Violin and Cello was composed in Rome in 1964. A five-minute work in one movement, it was intended for domestic use as the composer, a former cellist, envisioned playing it with his sister, an oboist, and her husband, a violinist. Such a performance has yet to take place.

--RW